

Andrew Harris Profile

Career Background

NHS:

- Former GP and hospital and community paediatrician, with MRCP,
- Ex director of clinical governance and member UK Caldicott Council
- Former primary care advisor and medical director
- MSc health policy, FFPHM, consultant in public health, deputy DPH
- Vice Chair Educational Consortium

Law:

- LLB, Administrative law LLM, non practising barrister
- Associate of DMLaw solicitors, specialising in health law
- Co Editor Health Law book, researcher and author on communicable disease law, governance and confidentiality
- Part time Assistant Deputy Coroner

Consultancy:

- Accredited mediator, School of Psychotherapy, Regents College
- Consultancy to various health organizations in risk management and governance
- Developing model for NHS complaints resolution to manage risk and avoid litigation

Whole Systems' Leadership & Consultancy Experience

- Scientific and legal review of use of communicable disease control powers and policy recommendations for management of multi-drug resistant TB
- Investigated high mortality rates of intensive care unit and facilitated adoption of recommendations to reduce risk
- Reviewed literature and policy on sun beds and developed policy options to reduce risk of harm
- Advised on potential uses social care data and information governance challenges for new Active Case Management service for those with long term conditions
- Reviewed law and professional practice on confidentiality for anonymisation, public interest disclosure and mental capacity.
- Reviewed law and practice on health and sickness absence, incapacity benefits and occupational illnesses and recommended policy approaches
- Analysis of impact on health inequalities of introducing polyclinics in primary care and ways to mitigate any adverse effects
- Reviewed law on and ethics of decision making processes and corporate governance responsibilities with regard to funding exceptional treatments
- Resolved partnership conflict and facilitated away day
- Developing model for NHS complaints resolution to manage risk and avoid litigation