

Alastair Mitchell-Baker Profile

Career Background

- Over 20 years' experience in health services
- Previous NHS roles include
  - Chief Executive of community and mental health NHS Trust employing over 2,000 people.
  - Project Director of major strategic reviews
  - Director of large acute hospital Trust responsible for strategy, planning, information and facilities
- Major role in planning and delivery of several new hospitals via PFI and public funding
- Experienced in clinical services' reviews, clinical systems' improvement and OD in healthcare
- Non-Executive Director of South Central Ambulance Service NHS Trust
- Associate Board member of NHS National Technology Adoption Centre
- Member of Organisation Design Forum
- MA in Natural Sciences from Cambridge University and postgraduate diplomas in Health Services Management and Philosophy and Health Care

Whole Systems' Consultancy Experience

- 4 Years as Director of Mitchell-Baker Associates, a consultancy specialising in health services' strategic management
- 3 years as the lead consultant for health and social care with Work Structuring Ltd. specialising in whole systems organisational redesign
- In 2005 a founding Director of Tricordant Ltd.
- Major client strategic management and organisation development projects with:
  - Strategic Health Authorities including London, Beds and Herts, Essex, Surrey and Sussex, and Norfolk, Suffolk and Cambridgeshire
  - Wide range of NHS Trusts , Foundation Trusts and Primary Care Trusts
  - National bodies including Dept of Health, NHS Institute for Innovation and Improvement and National Innovation Centre
  - Waitemata District Health Board, New Zealand
  - Forensic Science Service, Flagship Training Ltd, G4S