

Hilary Wilderspin Profile

Career Background

- 25 years health service experience at all organisational tiers of the NHS ; Department of Health, Government Office, SHA, Foundation and Acute Trusts and PCT as well as in private sector consultancy
- Experienced in strategy and policy review and development for both commissioners and providers
- Experienced in business case review and development for both commissioners and providers
- Project management experience in a variety of services and sectors, including service reconfiguration
- Acute trust and PCT operational experience, including direct management of clinical services
- MA in History, University of Cambridge
- Institute of Health Services Management Diploma (Honours)

Whole Systems' Consultancy Experience

- Strategy review and development across a broad range of subjects and services; cardiac, Level 3 neonatal, cancer, community services, public health, including:
 - Development of the tertiary cardiac strategy for the East of England
 - Development of the Level 3 neonatal strategy for Essex SHA
- Business case development and review in areas such as provider service and capital investment plans; Trust, network and PCT activity plans and planning assumptions including:
 - Review of cardiac component of the Barts and the London FBC
 - Development of the business case for the establishment of the East of England cancer registry
- Project management experience including
 - Transfer of Orthopaedic services from a specialist unit to a DGH setting
 - Delivery of the Saving Lives self assessment tool for the Department of Health
 - Development of an overseas leadership programme for an SHA
- Use and development of scientific models and analytical tools to solve complex problems ranging from:
 - needs assessment models
 - patient flow and access scenarios
 - activity projections linked to finance and capacity
 - self assessment tools linked to balanced scorecards