

TRICORDANT

Equipping Organisations to be Whole and Healthy

www.tricordant.com

Jane Edge Profile

Career Background

- Jane has built a track record at senior executive level over two decades, driving growth and excellence by developing people and strategy, effectively implementing change and improving business processes.
- 12 years in senior leadership roles, including that of Chief Executive, in leading international third sector organisations, with experience in Australia, the US and across Asia.
- 11 years in senior media & marketing management roles, including seven years as a journalist and communications consultant.
- Achieved A Grading as a journalist during her earlier media career
- Qualifications:
  - MBA (Executive)
  - Marketing Diploma
  - Undertaking Advanced Certificate in Executive Coaching
  - Licentiate member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development.

Recent Projects

- Led the process of designing & implementing a strategic transformation programme to ensure better outcomes for children and families by redesigning the community development model for global roll-out
- Experienced in organisational capacity assessment and capability building tools & processes
- Designed & delivered governance training and frameworks at Board level
- Planned and executed people and performance initiatives achieving enhanced operational effectiveness through leadership development, accountability frameworks and culture change
- Coached leaders and senior management teams to enhance individual and organisational performance
- Guided organisational development, strategic planning and implementation across seven country operations, representing an annual investment of £15M
- Led a Balanced Scorecard initiative to drive enhanced performance across a global, £100M operation comprising 35 offices
- Led organisational expansion with successful start-ups in new country locations.