

Malcolm Mirrielees Profile

Career Background

- 25 years' experience as a management consultant and programme leader.
- Qualified to Advanced Practitioner level in MSP (Managing Successful Programmes).
- Delivery Leader for Gemini Consulting European Healthcare Delivery Sector.
- Partner in charge of Coopers & Lybrand National Strategy Skill Group for 4 years.
- 14 years' varied experience within UK engineering industry
- MBA with Distinction in Business Policy from City University Business School.
- MA in Chemistry from University College, Oxford.

Whole Systems' Consultancy Experience

- Leadership of the Transforming Healthcare Delivery programme at one of the NHS' pilot sites for hospital-wide transformation.
- Leadership of a project to radically transform store and head-office operations of major UK sports retailer.
- Business performance improvement programme for European Retail division of global oil company.
- Interim Change Director for new Planning & Performance Management Directorate of DWP.

Recent Consultancy and Programme Management Assignments

- Programme Manager for the introduction of Stroke Services for a SE London borough.
- Stream Project Manager, major Business Process Redesign project at National Grid.
- Field Support Coordinator, London area, for NHS/CfH ISIP programme.
- Initiation Stage Manager with Fujitsu for two early adopter sites in Southern Cluster of NHS National Programme for IT.