

TRICORDANT

Equipping Organisations to be Whole and Healthy

www.tricordant.com

Roger Greene Profile

Career Background

- Roger has 26 years experience of management & leadership in the NHS
- Chief Executive of 2 NHS Trusts in the south-east of England, with responsibility for a full range of acute, community, mental health and specialist tertiary services
- Unit General Manager at the United Leeds Teaching Hospital NHS Trust with responsibility for a wide range of specialist tertiary services
- He has either chaired or participated in a wide range of Regional, National and Department of Health working groups, particularly in the area of Information Management and Technology.
- Roger has a first-class BA Honours degree and PhD, both from the University of Leeds.

Whole Systems' Leadership & Consultancy Experience

- Strategic re-development of provider services across an integrated acute, community and mental health NHS Trust
- Co-leadership of the multi-agency Vision 2010 initiative for the residents of a PCT-wide area.
- Strategic re-development of comprehensive mental health services in Mid Sussex
- Leadership of a major Business Process Re-engineering programme across an NHS Trust
- Chairmanship of numerous region-wide groups, especially in the area of IM&T development

Recent consultancy and training assignments have included;

- Work with the Darzi review, the Department of Health and the NHS Institute for Innovation and Improvement
- Whole systems review of Long Term Conditions management in a PCT
- Developing the business case for leading edge Functional Neurosurgery in a large NHS Trust
- Board development with a PCT in the south east of England
- The Route to Foundation Trust status for an NHS Trust.
- Workshops in Strategic Vision, Shaping Contagious Change, Personal Effectiveness and Best Use of Time for a range of health service and charitable organisations.
- Providing continuing Management services and support to a £3m-turnover Christian Charity.